

2020 was an impactful year in many ways. The Hub found opportunity during this challenging time to do what we do best,
SUPPORT OUR COMMUNITY

Community Support and Impact

Healthy Workplace

Becoming a model for essential businesses to reopen safely. Continuing to modify our work spaces to physically distance members by 6 ft, providing 2x daily disinfecting, and investing in virtual conference and podcasting equipment.

Financial Support

The Hub gave $19,700 in direct discounts from Apr-Sep of 2020, supporting 135 members and 100+ small businesses.

Information Resource

Spearheading support for small businesses to navigate the SBA loans and PPP grants application process In 2020.

AWARDS

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

A successful pilot program in 2020 supporting social Impact entrepreneurs in early stage ventures led to a partnership between Teach For America and the Hub with seed grant of $50,000+ for 2021.

Partnership with Next For Me

Partnering with Silicon valley tech entrepreneur Jeff Tidwell, the Hub provided a virtual meetups for local entrepreneurs to brainstorm and make their next business pivots.

REBRAND

The Hub departed from the global Impact Hub network to focus its efforts and build community in Hawai'i.

Art at the Hub

Art at the Hub is an ongoing program to support local artists. Lauren Trangmar, Dawn Yoshimura, and Sarah Farris are some of the most recent artists to be featured in the gallery space.

NEW NAME, SAME IMPACT; continuing to hold tightly to our core community values: Integrity, Equity, Celebration, Creativity, and Respect.

LOOKING AHEAD

HIGHLIGHTS

- Partnering with East-West Center for #GalsWithLEI Global.
- Developing our online community through Mighty Networks.
- Building a mentorship pipeline to connect remote workers with local businesses.
- Funding social impact startups for their next steps.
- Building Impact Partnerships to support small businesses in Hawai'i.

2020 IMPACT PARTNERS

Thank you to the Hub's Impact Partners for the incredible support to the community.

HAWAII
INVESTMENT
READY

AMERICAN
Savings Bank

HR Symphony™
by ALTRES.

ulupono
INITIATIVE